Origin: Bugatti's sire Bergamon is a son of Baryshnikov (by Bolero), winner of his 100-Day test and many time winner in S-level Dressage tests. Bugatti's dam St.Pr. Raffinesse is by the renowned Westphalian stallion Rubinstein, who had continuous international success in dressage and breeding. St.Pr. Raffinesse is out of an extremely influential and successful mare St.Pr.St. Desirée by Donnerhall. Under Karin Rehbein, Donnerhall won many World Cup, World Championship, and German Championship titles.

Performance Record: As a three year-old, Bugatti earned a score of 140 points in the dressage portion of his 100-day test, and received scores of 9 on character, rideability, temperament, and all three gaits. He has competed at the Bundescampionat, the FEI World Breeding Championships for Young Horse Horses, and National and International competitions at Prix St. Georges and Intermediaire. In 2008, he captured consistently earned top ribbons at CDI competitions throughout the East Coast. Under Chris Hickey, Bugatti was the USDF Region 1 Prix St. Georges Championship and was Reserve Champion for the Intermediaire Freestyle.

Breeding/Progeny Record: Bugatti has already sired one approved stallion, numerous Premium and Inspection Site Champion foals, and Premium Mares through the use of frozen semen. Flyinge, the National Stud of Sweden, also had privilege of leasing Bugatti for three seasons early in his breeding career and his offspring remain highly sought after in Sweden and are known for their excellent character.
