Origin: Londonderry (Lauries Crusador xx/ Warkant) won his stallion licensing and has quickly become one of the most fashionable dressage producers of all time and stamps his get with outstanding active hind-legs and strong uphill exteriors. Lullaby is from Londonderry's first foal crop and was his first son approved for breeding. Lullaby's dam Dunera is line bred on the legendary Donnerhall through her sire Duntroon (Donnerhall/Pik Bube) who was owned and competed successfully in the Grand Prix internationally by Australian Olympian Kristy Oatley-Nist.

Performance Record: This striking bright chestnut stallion brings together the best of the top European bloodlines available in Londonderry and Donnerhall. Lullaby completed his 300 day German Hanoverian State Test at Adelheidsdorf, Germany Placing 5th for dressage with a score of over 119.00! He is approved for breeding by the German Hanoverian Verband, German Oldenburg Verband, and is an Elite stallion with the American Hanoverian Society. In 2008, at only eight years old, Lullaby began breaking the 70% mark in the Open FEI division. He won the Open Intermediate 1 division at Gold Coast Dressage (Wellington, FL) with a score of 72.5%. He continued to score in the 70% range throughout the summer show circuit. Lullaby is currently competing in Europe in Prix St. Georges and ntermediate 1. In 2007, two days after Lullaby turned seven he competed in the Open Prix St. Georges at the Gold Coast Opener CDI in Wellington, FL placing 3rd. Lullaby was one of 20 horses invited to compete in the prestigious 'Developing Horse National Championships' in Lexington, KY where he placed 8th nationally. In 2006, Lullaby was short-listed for the World Young Horse Championships under Olympian Lisa Wilcox. He later went on to place 7th at the National Young Horse Championships in Lexington, KY in the F.E.I. 6 year olds division and won a 'Horse of the Year' title under owner/rider Rick Rockefeller-Silvia.

Breeding/Progeny Record: Lullaby's 2008 foal crop enjoyed many 'premium' ratings by both the German Oldenburg Verband and the American Hanoverian Society. Stallion candidate, Licurish (Lullaby,Weltmeyer,Florestan) was exported to Germany and displays the same wonderful temperament as his sire.
